The Weatherly Spirit... 'I Have a Friend' Coming again this Summer

Do you remember the first I Have a Friend cookout last year? Over 300 people gathered for food, fun and fellowship. The deacons grilled hamburgers and hotdogs. You brought friends. And everyone seemed to have a good time. The deacons have agreed to cook again this year. You invite your friends again, and we will all have fun.

Here's something you may not know. Some of the people who joined our church this year had their first contact with us at one of the I Have a Friend events. Study after study shows that the most effective outreach tool is still the human voice. Radio and TV ads have their place. So do newspaper ads and special mailings. But when you say to someone, "Won't you please be my guest at my church this weekend," you have expressed the most effective means of church growth. I hope you will do it again this year. Greet your new neighbors with a welcome to your neighborhood, and then invite them to our church. When they attend, be sure to introduce them to me. I'll look forward to meeting them.

Here is the schedule for our events this year: June 22, July 20, and August 10. They will be at 5:30 PM, so mark your calendar now. We will keep track of those who turn in cards indicating that they have invited a friend. Won't you do one of your friends a favor, and invite him or her to one of our cookouts? It could mean everything to your friend.

Thinking of a friend to invite,
David

Worship News for This Week

The Third Sunday of Pentecost

Being and Doing - Thoughts before Communion

What is more important - being or doing? One might argue that being is no good if nothing is ever done. Another might argue that doing may be misguided if it does not issue out of who we are as Christians, i.e., being. Jesus addresses this in the Sermon on the Mount. Join us next Sunday as we consider the significance of being and doing. We will observe the Lord's Supper. Invite a friend or neighbor to be your guest in worship.

Deacon Nomination Ballots

Deacon nomination ballots will be distributed June 8 and 15. Please give prayerful consideration to your nominations.

Burnetts on Furlough

The Missions Committee is asking the congregation to extend a warm Weatherly Welcome to the Rick Burnett family by participating in a church wide "pounding" now through June 15. Rick, Ellen and their three sons will be staying in a local apartment arranged by the mission committee; they are to return to Burma in late December. Donated pounding items can be left in the marked collection boxes in the education hallway. Any monetary gifts will be used by the committee to purchase discount and grocery store gift cards. Suggested items for donation include: pantry staples, kitchen, laundry and bathroom cleansers, movie rental cards, newspaper subscription, bed, bath and kitchen linens, and basic first aid items.

A more complete list will be posted in the Adult Sunday School rooms.

We will honor the Burnett family with a reception on June 25.

Thank You, WHBC

Dear Weatherly Family,

I wish to take this opportunity to thank each of you for your thoughts, prayers, cards, phone calls, emails, and visits during my recent illness. It seems I have had many medical problems during the past year. But hopefully, this is behind me now and I look forward to being back in church again very soon.

I don't know how folks get along without the Christian love of the family of faith.

Blessings to each of you,
Alice Caruso

Dear Weatherly Heights Baptist Church,

Thank you for the kind words, cards, calls and prayers for Nick and our family. We seldom come to church that several people don't stop us and ask about Nick or just tell us they pray for him every day. We don't hear from him as often now that he has settled into his job but we know the prayers are continuing and are all that we can do from so far away. I often think how many people are praying for Nick and know thousands of families are experiencing the same fears as we are and ask that you remember them as well. Thank you for being a church that cares and that we can depend on.

Love,
Bodo, Kathy & Kristina
