Worship News for Next Sunday

The Climax of the Gospel
Psalm 16; John 20:19-31

The disciple named Thomas is remembered for doubting the resurrection of Jesus. That is unfortunate because he makes one of the great affirmations of faith: “My Lord and my God!” That declaration is the climax of the Gospel of John. Join us next Sunday as the pastor talks about it. Invite a friend to be your guest.

Religious Autobiographies Begin this Week

I always find the sharing of religious autobiographies to be meaningful. They provide us an opportunity to get to know each other better. Even more importantly, they provide us an opportunity to see how someone else has worked out his or her faith. That is helpful as we follow Paul’s counsel to the Philippians: “work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.”

We have two who will be sharing their stories this year:

Michael Bowe, April 19
Allison Whitener, April 26

We will move to the sanctuary for these, so they can be recorded. If you have to miss one, you can check out the CD. Join us this Wednesday at 6:15 in the sanctuary. You will be glad you did.

Lecture Series and Dinners

As everyone knows, Todd and Frances Wilson will be visiting at the end of the month when our former pastor is speaking at the Howard H. Williams Lecture Series. Dr. Wilson became pastor of Weatherly Heights Baptist Church in 1975. His tenure focused on extending Jesus’ ministry of preaching, teaching, and healing. He also established our continuing tradition of religious autobiographies.

Dr. Wilson will speak on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, April 28-30, on the New Testament.

As a convenience for those who plan to attend Friday night’s lecture, the Adult Committee has arranged for dinner catered by J. W. Steakhouse. They will take reservations through Wednesday, April 26. The cost is $12.00 and includes beef, chicken, and vegetable kabobs with a baked potato and salad. Tea and dessert will be included. You do not have to make dinner reservations in order to attend the lecture series. Checks made payable to WHBC. Put "lecture series dinner" in the memo line.

As a special treat, the Wilson’s will also be our honored guests at a church-wide family potluck supper on Sunday, April 30, in the Lighthouse. Join us at 5:30 and bring enough food to share, as we hope to have several other visitors as well.

The Howard H. Williams Lectures

“How to Understand and Interpret the New Testament”
by Dr. G. Todd Wilson
April 28-30

Friday Night: “The Development of the New Testament Canon”
“The Translations of the New Testament”
Saturday Morning: “Determining What the Text Meant in Its Context”
“Determining What the Text Means Today”
Sunday Morning: “Discerning and Doing the Will of God”

Thank You for Your Recent Memorial Gifts

In memory of Evelyn Cook, Jeanne Greer’s grandmother, given by the Bible & Breakfast Class to the youth mission trip

In memory of John Terry, given by Nancy Peters and family to the Music Ministry

Thanks to my Church family for all the prayers, calls, visits, food and cards following my surgery.
I came home last Sunday and have been getting better each day.
Please continue to remember Carolyn and me in your prayers as I continue to heal and Carolyn takes care of me.
We love our Church family.
Sincerely, Eddie Hunt
What's Growin' on in the Garden

Thanks to all who helped plant the garden this week. Here's what has been planted:

- Tomatoes
- Peppers
- Yellow squash
- Zucchini squash
- Onions
- Cabbage (planted about a month ago and should be ready in a couple of weeks)
- Potatoes (planted a couple of weeks ago and beginning show green growth)
- Sugar snap peas (planted a couple of weeks ago and growing)
- Turnip and mustard greens (ready to harvest)
- Asparagus (ready to harvest)

Other items will be planted as the soil warms.
