What Have We Done Today

Anonymous

We shall do so much in the years to come,
But what have we done today?
We shall give our gold in a princely sum,
But what did we give today?
We shall lift the heart and dry the tear,
We shall plant a hope in the place of fear,
We shall speak the words of love and cheer,
But what did we speak today?

We shall be so kind in the after-a-while,
But what have we been today?
We shall bring to each lonely life a smile,
But what have we brought today?
We shall give to truth a grander birth,
And to steadfast faith a deeper worth,
We shall feed the hungering souls of earth;
But whom have we fed today?

We shall reap such joys in the by and by,
But what have we sown today?
We shall build us mansions in the sky,
But what have we built today?
Tis sweet in idle dreams to bask,
But here and now do we do our task?
Yes, this is the thing our souls must ask,
"What have we done today?"

The senior team is planning an evening of international entertainment on Thursday, May 9. It will start with a German dinner at the Biergarten at the US Space and Rocket Center and conclude at the Botanical Garden for the Chinese Lantern Festival. Attendees are asked to sign up on the Senior Team bulletin board and pay their Garden admission in the office by May 3. Food at the Biergarten is on your own. Anyone who wants to carpool may meet at the church by 4:00 on May 9.

All members and guests of WHBC are invited to an open house at Lenice Justice Library on April 24. The library will be open starting at 5:15 so you can stop in before supper and register for a door prize. They will stay open until 7:15 so you can stop by after attending Janis Simpson’s religious autobiography. The librarian and her assistants are eager to share the wealth of resources available through our church library.
